

EVI J. CARMICHAEL

Was born in Tallinn, Estonia. She came to Scotland as a displaced person via Poland, Germany and Austria and has lived in Edinburgh most of her life.

She has always loved painting and, since retiring from Nursing, has become more involved with local art clubs and exhibitions. She has been a successful exhibiting artist with Hanover Fine Arts since its beginnings in 1985 until the gallery closed in 2009.

She is a member of the Holyrood and Musselburgh Art Clubs. Some of her works are on the Portobello website (www.porty.org.uk and click 'Galleries' then 'Art' on home page).

Artist's statement -

Evi's aim in painting is to capture the beauty and colour of nature and architecture.
